Rivendell Residents,

The Members Meeting was held on the morning of Feb 6th in which the election of new directors was finalized. There was no change in the Board members but there was a change in the structure. Larry Dobias was elected as the President with Greg Volack and Cathy Daignault retaining their position as the V. President and Treasurer respectively. George Smith was elected as the Secretary and John Fitzgibbon is now Director-at-Large. Thanks to everyone who voted and who helped with the election.

Going forward this Board has one objective and that is to manage the community responsibly with the best interest of every member in mind. Every effort will be made to improve communications with our owners and to be transparent with our actions. We will do our best to be effective leaders and we look forward to your presence at upcoming Board meetings. We value your opinions and comments in hopes that all will work to make Rivendell a great place to call home.

Should you be interested in attending the next Board meeting via Zoom, it's scheduled for Wednesday February 10th at 6:00 PM. The meeting agenda and connection information will be sent and posted to the website prior to the meeting.

Sincerely

Rivendell Board of Directors
